

Sanyogita Ghorpade : Making Kolhapur proud at the International Badminton

Sanyogita Ghorpade, a name synonymous with grit, determination, and excellence, has etched her place among India's badminton elite. From humble beginnings to achieving the prestigious Shiv Chhatrapati Award in 2019, her journey has been nothing short of extraordinary.

A former India No. 1, Sanyogita's prowess on the court has been showcased on the grandest stages of the sport. She represented India in the Uber Cup in Thailand (2018), the World Championship in China (2018), and the Asia Badminton Team Championship in Malaysia, where she played a vital role in securing a silver medal for the country. These milestones reflect her relentless pursuit of excellence and her unyielding commitment to making India proud on the global stage.

Her international successes extend to numerous podium finishes. She clinched the silver medal at the Egypt International in 2019, a testimony to her sharp skills and competitive spirit. She was also the Women's Doubles runner-up at the Bahrain International Series and Challenge and earned a silver medal at the Mauritius International Series. Her selection to represent India at the Vietnam Grand Prix further underscores her stature as a world-class athlete.

Sanyogita's journey stands as an inspiration for aspiring players. Her achievements are a result of years of dedication, discipline, and a steadfast love for the sport. Off the court, she exemplifies the values of sportsmanship and humility, making her a role model for the next generation.

As Kolhapur celebrates its badminton legacy through the KDBA Golden Jubilee Souvenir, it is athletes like Sanyogita Ghorpade who continue to inspire dreams, proving that with determination, anything is possible.

Let us honor this remarkable player for her contributions to Indian badminton and for being a true ambassador of the sport from the city of Kolhapur
